

BASICS OF MEDICARE

There are two main ways to get Medicare

Medicare Supplement Plans help cover some or all of your cost sharing in Part A and Part B.

Medicare Part A

Helps with In-Patient Hospital Costs

Medicare Part B

Helps With Doctor and Outpatient Care

Medicare Part D

Helps pay for out-patient prescription drugs

Medicare Part C Plans combine benefits from Part A and B and most of the time Part D.

Medicare Part C

Plans often include additional benefits such as a basic vision, dental & more.

Do I have to sign up for Part A and Part B?

If you are receiving SSI or SSDI then you will automatically be enrolled into Medicare. Everyone else has to sign up. It is a good idea to verify if signing up for Medicare is the right decision for you, if you or your spouse are still working and covered under employer benefits.

Medicare Part A Cost Sharing for 2020

Before Part A begins paying a share of your costs, you must first pay a deductible of $1,408 in 2020 for each hospital stay, up to 60 days.

You pay a copay after you have stayed 60 days:

- $352 (2020) per day for days 61 through 90
- $704 (2020) per day for days 91 through 150

In a skilled nursing facility, you'll pay:

- $0 (2020) per day for days 1 through 20
- $178 (2020) per day for days 21 through 100

Medicare Part B Cost Sharing for 2020

Before Part B begins paying for costs, you must first pay the annual deductible of $198 for the calendar year. After you pay the deductible, Part B generally pays 80% and you pay 20% as coinsurance.

Medicare Part C Cost Sharing for 2020

Most Medicare Advantage plans use a combination of deductibles, coinsurance, and copays to share the costs with you. They MUST BE as good as or better than Part A and Part B. These plans usually also include a prescription drug plan, as well as other additional benefits beyond what Part A and Part B provide.

Medicare Part D Cost Sharing for 2020

Some plans charge a deductible and some don't. Some drug plans charge a copay each time you fill a prescription. Some drug plans charge a percentage of the cost when you fill a prescription.

In 2020, during the coverage gap you will pay 25% of the cost of generic drugs and about 25% of the cost of most brand-name drugs. You will receive additional savings annually until the coverage gap is closed in 2021.

When Can You Sign Up for Medicare Parts A & B?

During your initial enrollment period you have 7 months to sign up for a Medicare plan.

BEFORE

The start of your enrollment period happens 3 months before you turn 65.

BIRTHDAY MONTH

The end of your enrollment period happens 3 months after you turn 65.

AFTER

If you enroll in Part A (if you have to buy it) and/ or Part B the month you turn 65 or during the last 3 months of your Initial Enrollment Period, your start date will be delayed:

IF YOU ENROLL IN THIS MONTH:

- The Month You Turn 65
- 1 Month After You Turn 65
- 2 Months After You Turn 65
- 3 Months After You Turn 65

YOUR COVERAGE STARTS:

- 1 Month After Enrollment
- 1 Month After Enrollment
- 2 Months After Enrollment
- 3 Months After Enrollment

How Much Does Part A Cost?

Medicare Part A is free for most. In 2020, people who have to buy Part A pay premiums up to $458 each month. In most cases, if you choose to buy Part A, you must also have Part B and pay monthly premiums for both.

How Much Does Part B Cost?

Most people will pay the standard premium amount ($144.60 in 2020). However, if your modified adjusted gross income as reported on your IRS tax return from 2 years ago is above or below a certain amount, you may pay more or less for your plan.
